

About the Conference

CMAE-2022: Multilingual International Conference on “Commerce, Management, Arts & Engineering” aims to bring together leading academicians, scientists, students and research scholars from around the world to exchange and share their experiences and research findings on all aspects of Advancements in different language. It also serves as a prominent multidisciplinary forum for academics, practitioners, and educators to present and debate the most current breakthroughs, trends, and concerns, as well as practical difficulties and solutions in the domains of science, engineering, and technology.

About the College

St Ann’s college for Women envisions empowerment of the girl student through academic excellence, skill enhancement and value enrichment. The mission of the institution is in tune with the objectives of higher education and strives to provide a synthesis of academics and ethics, inclusive growth and increased employability with global competencies.

Following its reaccreditation with A+ grade by NAAC in 2018, post its autonomous status, the institution reassessed its strengths, challenges and opportunities to plan for the road ahead. It involved an analysis of the immediate and potential future environment of education, the New Education Policy of the Government of India and other factors of the internal and external environment that would influence the institution. The focus was to align efforts with the vision and mission of the college and set priorities to achieve stated goals.
