ABOUT THE COLLEGE

St. Ann's College For Women (Autonomous) affiliated to Osmania University was started in the year 1983. The founder was Smt. Thatipatri Gnanamma; a visionary and missionary who dedicated her life to enlighten and educate poor and young girls. The college was reaccredited by NAAC in the year 2018 and was awarded A+ grade in the 3rd cycle. The college with 3000 students is now at the forefront of providing quality education for women with the vision of academic excellence, skill enhancement and value enrichment.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Department aims to make the students aware of the vast treasure of Islamic knowledge in the fields classical and modern literature and the contribution and achievements of the eminent scholars to Arabic literature. It also strives to educate women to face the challenges of the future, through value based teachings, morals and ethics, and to create interest in language.

OBJECTIVES

- To get an idea of frame work of new education policy NEP
- To know the changes undertaken in curricular aspects of NEP
- To understand the faculty development initiatives in NEP
- To analyze the new academic performance indicators.
