ABOUT CWS

ABOUT NCW

The National Commission for Women (NCW) is the statutory body of the Government of India established on 31 January 1992 under the provisions of the Indian Constitution. The objective of the NCW is to represent the rights of women in India and to provide a voice for their issues and concerns. The subjects of their campaigns have included dowry, politics, religion, equal representation for women in jobs, and the exploitation of women for labor.

ABOUT THE LEGAL AWARENESS PROGRAM

Understanding of the legal literacy and legal awareness is the need of the hour to deal with these uncertain problems existing and rising in the society. What it is, why it is important, and how we can promote it. Majority people of India are legal illiterate and not aware of the basic rights conferred upon them by law. Substantial population of the country living in the cities, towns and villages do not know what are their rights and entitlements under the law. Even the literate people are helpless and confused when there is a violation or infringement of a right enforceable in law. The experts, academicians, lawyers and other professionals from various sectors will explore, learn, discuss and engage in key concerns in the particular area

OBJECTIVES

- To spread legal awareness among students and women on civil & criminal law and reproductive health rights.
- To recognize they have a legal right or responsibility, in order to exercise or assume it
- To recognize when a problem or conflict is a legal conflict and when a legal solution is available;
- To know when and how to obtain suitable legal assistance.
